ALL MY DEAR FRIENDS AND COLLEAGUES - GREETINGS AND BEST WISHES:

On behalf of the Venerable Sayadaw U Thila Wunta and myself personally as the founding President of the International Buddhist Friends Association, I would like to kindly invite your support and participation in this very special event.

The Venerable Sayadaw U Thila Wunta has constructed many stuppas (peace pagodas) in Burma/Myanmar and many other venues around the world. The purpose is to help generate world peace, universal healing and harmony.

We hope you will agree with this non-profit endeavor for the benefit of all sentient beings everywhere—past present and future. It is also an extremely valuable lifetime experience.

Sincerely Yours, with Mettā, Steven

In our life we should always love and respect our parents, teachers, colleagues and friends. We should seek to create and generate responsibility for all sentient beings, our precious environment, wonderful universe and powerful Mother Nature, constantly healing ourselves and others.

Steven KH Aung, MD, 2005

VENERABLE SAYADAW U THILA WUNTA WORDS OF WISDOM:

Live simply, conserve your resources for the Path...Then you have time and energy to make a strong commitment to practice. This is aditthana. From a strong aditthana samadhi will surely grow.

In constructing a pagoda, stone, bricks, cement, lime and water are transformed into a powerful structure which holds the Awakened One's relics. People can then come and honour them. In contrast, a flawed brick, one than cannot be used, is simply walked over. Each day should be like a precious brick, building the golden pagoda inside your being.

Most of you keep the 'nicety-nice' photos of yourself, hiding the others. This is an error. Instead, make use of your unwholesome states; enlarge these photos, which show greed, hatred and delusion. Then each day look at them closely, and in the future you will not indulge in negativity quite so quickly.
